Each of us is a part of a group or groups, whether they be a family, a class, a club, a community organization, an athletic team, a group of friends, a member of the student body, or a part of a larger classification — society. Yet, every group is composed of individuals who find various means of self-expression in their attitudes, achievements, talents, determination and enthusiasm.

These expressions and how they interweave to form the whole person and his environment is what we hope to express in the 1968 ACORN.

Student Life

At AHS, Spirit Is. . .

This was the first year for Big Game Week. Building up enthusiasm for the big game with Encinal, the activities included the Wishing Well Contest won by the sophomores, who gathered $49.16, the Class Banner competition, won by the juniors, and the Stash the Trash Contest, won by the seniors with 161 lbs. of garbage. Student leaders were "sold" during a Slave Auction for a day's service to AHS'ers with the high bids. Mr. and Miss Irresistable were Gary Dettmer and Teresa Sedillo.

Homecoming Week was celebrated from October 30 through November 3. It included Club Day when various club banners were hung in the halls to encourage new members. Game Day featured a Pie-Eating Contest which was won by Linda Vraciu and Mark Marmor and a Tug-of-War Contest that no one won because the rope broke. Birgir Day honored our foreign exchange student. One of the highlights for Seniors was when they paraded in costume around the school to advertise their Senior Play.

Fall Officers Organize Tutoring Service

Fall Recording Secretary Sam Russell and Financial Secretary Pat Holden plan for a meeting.

The AHS student body officers followed through with the goals of student government and united the students in spirit this fall.

Homecoming and Big Game Weeks, planned in conjunction with the Ad Board, were two successful events of the fall. Through the help of the student body officers, a tutoring service was initiated at Island High School. Alameda High was financially supported by the 93% sale of student body cards.

Spring Officers Initiate New Programs

The Spring 1968 AHS student body officers coordinated many events for the second semester. Among these were changing the penalty system for truancies and tardies, organizing a wrestling team and adding fluorescent black lights for the stage. The officers also began work with a high school exchange program through the Peace Corps.

They ended the school year's entertainment with a performance by the American Conservatory Theater.

Spring Financial Secretary was Craig Jessup and Head Yell Leader was Jamie Stucky.

s Alive And Effective At AHS

Student government played a large part in the lives of the students at AHS again this year. Ad Board again planned activities such as Homecoming, Spirit, and Powder Puff Weeks, and their annual dance, "The Good 'Ole Days."

Student Court supplied the school with a judicial branch of government. Student Court, which was in its third year of existence at AHS, tried such offenses as cutting student body meetings, being asked to leave during one, and generally not obeying the school rules as enforced by the Boards of Control.

AHS Presents, "Repeat the Sounding Joy"

"Sounding Joy" filled the Alameda High School Auditorium as a cast of over 300 students presented the 28th annual Christmas Pageant, "Repeat the Sounding Joy."

Written and directed by Mr. Lloyd Sisler, the theme depicted different traditions connected with the season. The Toyland scene introduced several Mother Goose and Wizard of Oz characters. Fred Waring's "Night Before Christmas" was presented by the choir, orchestra, actors, and dancers. An old-fashioned country-styled Christmas complete with a Virginia Reel and a Jewish song celebrating Hanukkah were performed. Problems which face the world regardless of season or holiday were also brought to light, such as: wars, rioting, and hunger.

Assisting Mr. Sisler were: Mrs. Julie Blunden, choreography; Mrs. Carol Cedarleaf, choral groups; Mr. Carlton Hanson, orchestra; Miss Edna Reichmuth, scenery production; Mrs. Betty Tillotson and Mrs. Inez Whitton, costumes. Angela Galli and Jenny Sonido were student directors.

Dancing snowmen were also featured in the 1967 Christmas Pageant.

"Kahuna," this year's Soph-Hop, took place in the A.H.S. gym in late October. The theme was carried through with Hawaiian decorations, fountains and colored lights. Alameda Obtains Birgi and Britt

One could say that Alameda High was a very foreign exchange student-minded school, as two students this past year have visited A.H.S., and one A.H.S. student has gone abroad.

Britt Soderstrom, a sister city exchange student from Lindingo, Sweden, lived with four different Alameda families this past summer. While here, Britt visited the Mother Lode Country, Big Basin, and the Mariposa Redwood Groves. One day while she was staying with the Alfred Slaters, she accompanied her "sister" Jeanne to summer school at A.H.S., where she visited Jeanne's chemistry class.

An exchange student has studied his "foreign" language in school, or perhaps he hasn't. If it is the latter case, on the way to his "country" he takes a cram course on the language in which he will have to communicate for a number of months. Carol Roberts, A.H.S.'s American Field Service representative, was one of the students who didn't know the language of the country in which she was to spend a month and a half.

Carol visited the little town of Ebersborg, Germany during the past summer. Since Ebersborg is but a small distance from the Alps, Carol and her "family," the Joseph Hefbauers, often went hiking. Carol also went to school two weeks with her sister, attended dances, rode bicycles, and attended a country folk fest.

A summer in a strange land is quite a challenge, but consider what a year would be like. Birgir Mortenson, our A.F.S. student from the Faroe Islands, Denmark, spent the year with the Alan Henningers.

Birgir participated in such activities as Slave Day during Spirit Week, and a Viet Nam debate which was presented to the Student Body at one of its regular meetings.

Powder Puff Game Delayed In Memoriam

In honor of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., who was assassinated April 4 in Memphis, Tennessee, the Powder Puff Game was re-scheduled from April 5 to April 17, after Easter vacation. Because this unfortunate occurrence put the game past our deadline, the Acorn was not able to print any pictures of the game. Instead, we are printing several pictures taken during one of the practice sessions at Thompson Field.

The Powder Puff Football Game was begun at Alameda High in 1963 as a fund-raising activity for the American Field Service. Each year, the AFS has to earn at least $600 for next year's exchange student, and this annual game is instrumental in collecting this sum.

Coaching the Mamas were John Kie, Leonard Lindsay, and Sam Russell, while Eric Cross, Ben Garfinkle, and Dennis Peterson took control of the Babies. Co-captains of the Mamas were Corrine Chavez and Carol Willett, with Cookie Thomas and Becky West selected as the Babies leaders. And the ever popular, ever hilarious pom-pon boys were Mike Algeri, Brad Herrman, Pat Holden, Paul Idle, Steve Jones, Mark O'Connell, Jay Olavsen, Milton Ott, Jim Royer, Mike Walker, and alternates Forrest Bell and Paul McBride.

The Mamas practiced diligently in trying to win this year's game.

The members of the Spring Assembly Planning Board were: Norine Xavier, Jamie Stucky, Craig Jessup, Jim Wigge, Mary Craddock, Kathy Giomi, John Kie and Kathy Tague.

Assembly Planning Board Plans Interesting Weekly Meetings

The Assembly Planning Board has provided the AHS student body with various and interesting meetings this year. AHS students have been entertained by a classic guitarist, a harpist, several singing soloists, a soul group, and a group of singers from Castlemont High School.

Board of Control is one of those organizations that is ever-present, but unsung. The Boards of Control as usual, were in attendance at football games, and student body meetings.

The usual gold and white caps were worn by the men, and the traditional white middies and scarves were worn by the Fall Women's Board. The Women's Board of Control changed their uniforms in the spring to gold and white berets instead of the usual scarves and middies.

Participate In Spring Concert

This year the vocal groups performed for the PTA, local schools and for service clubs. The Madrigal Groups participated in three solo ensemble festivals in the Bay Area. The highlight of the groups' preparation was singing in the Christmas Pageant and in the Spring Concert.

The girls in Vocal Ensemble wore blue velvet dresses and the boys dressed in burgundy jackets. The dress for the girls in Choir was red corduroy dresses and the boys wore matching red vests. The Girls' Glee performed in green sheath dresses and Concert Chorale wore the traditional robes.

The 1968 Acorn introduced ten full-color pages this year in addition to larger pages. Working with the faculty advisor, Mrs. Judy Thompson, and Co-Editors Sydney Kapchan and Lenore Nelson, the Acorn staff met during the summer and after school to complete the book.

Under the supervision of Miss Madge Holland and Co-Managers Allan Wallace and Bev Rogers, the business staff sold ads to help support the costs of the book. Georgene Nelson, art editor, designed the cover and section pages of the yearbook.

The journalism class supplemented the regular ten-member staff with a variety of news features and editorial comments. Cartoons added many bright spots during the year.

While the journalism class prepared a cub edition in May, the regular staff published the Senior Edition. Expanded to six pages, the Oak Leaf gave the results of the senior polls, and several features for the enjoyment of all classes were included.

Students Perform at Youth Symphony

The AHS Orchestra, directed by Mr. Carlton Hanson, performed at the Senior Play, the Christmas Pageant, the All-School Play, the Spring Concert and Graduation during the past year. The class studied classical through modern string ensemble literature. Because the orchestra achieved such high standards, many members participated in the Berkeley Youth Symphony.

Bass players included Steve Krutelik, Charles Couchot, Paul Wondolleck and Pat Harris.

AHS's G.A. Defunct After 51 Years

"Man does not exist on bread alone;" neither can an organization exist with officers alone. Unfortunately, the fall G.A. was merely an organization in name. The officers organized and presented the yearly reception for the freshmen. By the conclusion of the fall semester, and the beginning of the spring semester, apathy had grown to such an extent that few girls signed up to run for office.

Since obvious disinterest was exhibited, Mrs. Gloria Witwer, the group's advisor, decided to disband the 51-year-old organization, thus leaving such time-honored traditions as the Freshman Reception and the Senior Mother-Daughter Tea without a sponsor.

The members of the G.A. Ad Board were: Karen Kleinhans, Patty Rose, Roxanne Jacopetti, Carmen Lopez. ROW 2—Corinne Chavez, Pat Samworth, Leona McCortney, Gloria Nu.

A Bit of Merrie England Visits AHS

The production of a period play in itself is a challenge; add dialogue, and you definitely have an ambitious project. Eighteenth century England was the setting for AHS's 1968 All-School Play, "Tom Jones." It is a story concerning a misunderstood youth of uncertain parentage whose primary concern is to marry his beloved Sophia, his only true love. But before this blessed event occurs, a mad Irishman, a lady of questionable repute, an inept robber direct from robbery school, a man-crazy lady of fashion, and an irate innkeeper cross his path. As all good stories end, Tom Jones discovers his true parentage, is betrothed to his beloved Sophia, and lives happily ever after.

Mr. Lloyd Sisler, director, was assisted primarily by Miss Edna Reichmuth, Mrs. Inez Whitton, Miss Arlene Hoshi, and Karin Roper, who was student director.

Board and Administration

Citizens Serve At Schools' Helm

One of the most vital of many important tasks faced this year by the staff of Dr. Donald M. Roderick, superintendent of schools, and the Board of Education was the setting and passing of a school bond issue June 4. Appropriation of $10 million in bonds was asked for remodeling and rebuilding schools judged structurally unsafe in the event of earthquake, including the main building here at AHS and Lincoln and Porter Elementary schools.

Principal Donald Bell Active in Community

Principal Donald Bell has compiled an admirable record as a leader in the community as well as a leader of students. Presently he is serving as president of the North Coast Section, California Interscholastic Federation. He is also on the C.I.F. board of managers. He holds membership in the California Teachers Association, California Association of Secondary School Administrators, and Alameda Association of Public School Administrators. He is the past president of the Kiwanis Club and is a member of the Alameda Lodge of Elks, Oak Grove Masonic Lodge, and Encinal Yacht Club.

Mr. Bell received his A.B. in 1933 at the University of California at Berkeley. It was there that he received his M.A. in 1939. His graduate work was also taken at San Francisco State, Stanford, the University of California, and the University of San Francisco. He was elected to Phi Delta Kappa, an educational honor society.

After earning his teaching credentials, Mr. Bell became a teacher at McFarland High, near Bakersfield, Lodi Union High, just north of Stockton, and then came to Alameda High School as a teacher in 1941. In 1942 he became vice-principal. Then in 1959 he was appointed principal of Encinal High School. He returned to AHS in January, 1967, as acting principal, a position which later became permanent.

The photographer catches the eye of Mr. Donald Bell and Mrs. Ruth McFeron while hard at work.

Principal's Message

Goethe once wrote, "If you treat an individual as he is, he will stay as he is, but if you treat him as if he were what he ought to be and could be, he will become what he ought to be and could be."

The implied challenge to teachers, parents, and others charged with the responsibility of educating and molding our youth is succinctly put in Goethe's quotation.

George Washington put it another way when he wrote for the youth of his day, "What you are to be, you are now becoming."

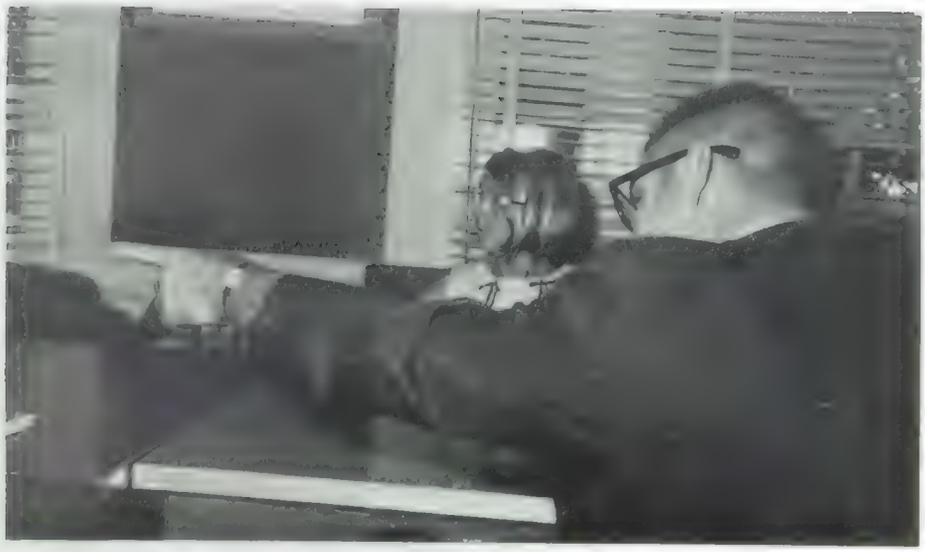
Individuality has many facets and takes many directions. It may lead one to the highest pinnacle of achievement or it may lead one to do nothing.

Various individual talents and traits of character, which are properly nurtured and developed in the school and home, must ultimately lead to worthwhile contributions to society as a whole.

This is the goal, this is the challenge that students, faculty, and parents strive to meet at Alameda High School.

I wish to congratulate the Acorn staff—Sydney Kapchan and Lenore Nelson, co-editors; Beverley Rogers and Alan Wallace, business managers; their advisors, Mrs. Judith Thompson, editorial manager, and Miss Madge Holland, business advisor—for bringing to us a yearbook of quality and scope, a yearbook which will be a standard for other staffs to emulate.

Administrators Suppor



The long arm of the law . . . Mr. Barry Conner.

As freshmen soon discover, locating Dr. James Snell, Mrs. Helen Hoeksema, or Mr. Barry Conner is not an easy task. The reason for this is that the demands on an administrator's time are many.

Mrs. Helen Hoeksema, vice principal, supervises the Women's Board of Control and the Courtesy Board. She is also very active in promoting interest in the American Field Service, which is our foreign exchange program.

Dr. James Snell, vice principal, is responsible for this year's new computer programming system. Looking back to the confusion at the beginning of the year this job is certainly one that keeps Dr. Snell busy.

Mr. Barry Conner, dean of students, handles the disciplinary problems at A.H.S. He also advises the student body officers, Ad Board, student court, and the Assembly Planning Committee.

Many students realize the importance of the administrator's support at school functions. These three people have been an integral part in promoting enthusiasm for extra-curricular activities.

be ironed out."

With the new locater cards came a change in the numbering of the periods during the school day. This year the periods numbered 1 to 7 instead of the familiar 0 to 6. This created no confusion among the freshmen, but a change in the familiar had old students in a "slight" upset.

There are many people at AHS who help us outside the classroom in a variety of ways.

The hard-working service crews at AHS include the secretarial staff, the custodial staff, and the cafeteria staff.

The school nurse, Mrs. Kay Hunter, is responsible for checking our eyesight and hearing and performing the other duties of a nurse as necessary. Our librarian, Mrs. Elizabeth Hemrich maintains the efficiency of the school library, which was remodeled one year ago.

There is also a group of teachers at AHS who teach driving skills. These driving skills consist of classroom instruction, taught by Mr. Leland Stanford, and actual behind-the-wheel driving in different situations, handled by Mr. Edward Ayres, Mr. David Kracl, and Mr. Dennis Hennessee. Together these teachers offer a student the knowledge and skills of safe driving.

In Memoriam

AHS lost a very good friend when Mr. Russell Bishop passed away in October, 1967. Russ Bishop had been a custodian here for sixteen years. He was very conscientious about his work and was helpful to all the students. His service here at AHS was honored by the student body at a student meeting with a minute of silence in his remembrance.

Top—The secretarial staff included: Mrs. Ruth McFeron, Mrs. Cheri Tocchini, Mrs. Janice Gallagher, Mrs. Sara Rhodes, Mrs. Mildred Ellis, Mrs. Esther McClara, Mrs. Inez Gingrich, Mrs. Marjorie Green. Middle—The custodial staff included: Row 1: Les Camper, Ernie Puggi, Al Lorenzana (head custodian). Row 2—Frank Lackneif, Don Eastman, Dan Cuellar, Vinod Tillak. Bottom—The cafeteria staff included: Mrs. Blanche Holt, Mrs. Alva Mason, Mrs. Elizabeth Zboyovsky, Mrs. Alberta Dole, Mrs. Cecelia Gannon, Mrs. Helen Plonczak, Mrs. Helen Kikes (cafeteria manager), Mrs. Patricia Johnson.

Hands, Minds, and Voices Trained To Create

Steve Strick was pep band leader at the basketball games, and editor of the band newspaper.

The Fine Arts Department was an even more exciting part of Alameda High than in previous years. The Art Department showed various displays in the lobby; the Music Department began giving weekly noon performances; and the Drama Department sponsored the All-School Play, which was staged for four evening performances for the first time.

Something different done this year by the art classes was children's murals for the mentally retarded.

The Drama Department performed at two student body meetings and was enjoyed thoroughly by the students this year. Along with the Senior Play, Christmas Pageant, and All-School Play, various plays were put on for English classes.

Orchestra and band taught appreciation of music through performing. Both were kept busy at plays, sports activities, and student body meetings.

A student-organized band newspaper, entitled Opus, was started this year. Steve Strick was editor and the purpose was to promote interest in the many aspects of music and to create better musicians. Sections included: tips on instruments, care of them, new techniques, and frequent problems; "Musician of the Week," who was chosen by the staff on the basis of who made the most contributions during that time; and "Did You Know?" an interesting column with facts about music.

Industrial Arts Utilize Skills

Teaching "salable skills" was the goal of the Industrial Arts Department this year. The job opportunities available to graduates were stressed and many speakers talked to the classes on these subjects. One of the speakers was Mr. Herman Leopold from the Department of Employment. Another speaker from the Naval Air Station spoke on the apprenticeship training program. New equipment included 25 mechanical drawing tables.

Girls Become Better Homemakers

The Home Economics Department offered Home Ec. AB, Home Management and Advanced Sewing and Foods classes this year.

As in previous years, Home Economics AB offered instruction on practical food preparation and Home Management provided instruction relating to the kitchen and dining areas.

In Advanced Foods meal planning was learned on the basis of nutrition, economy, time and effort. Food preparation for fun was also studied with emphasis on family and social relationships and this group prepared several special luncheons.

This spring, girls from the Advanced Sewing class entered a wool contest sponsored by the Singer Sewing Company in which only wool garments could be entered.

In both Girls' and Boys' PE more coed activities and "carry-over" sports were stressed this year. Carry-over sports are activities individuals can participate in outside of school.

In Boys' PE the physical fitness aspect was emphasized. The appreciation of physical fitness and exercise was also taught. Golf was offered for the first time.

For the girls, PE took on a whole new look. New tank suits were acquired for swimming, the huts were gone from the play yard and a new black top accommodated four basketball, four tennis, five volleyball, and two soccer courts. The seniors enjoyed coed badminton and volleyball and two weeks of free play. Also new this year was PE offered during first period, previously zero period.

One of the new courses offered by the English Department this year was the Journalism class for training in writing for publications. Reading-English I was also offered to improve reading and study skills and Reading-English II to develop communication skills.

A few of the functions attended by the Humanities sections of senior English this year included the play Hamlet, the Academy Award-winning "A Man For All Seasons," the San Francisco Museum of Art, and the De Young Museum. The classes were also visited by five poets from the San Francisco Poetry Center under the Pegasus program.

Because of computers which will accelerate all fields of technology, math is becoming more important to every student.

The new math program is now fully integrated in all of the math classes and the gap between arithmetic and algebra has disappeared, claims Mr. Jack Hallock, head of the Math Department.

More and more visual aids are being used because they concentrate the attention of the student.

Future plans of the Math Department include a course for students having trouble in algebra and a course for the student who wants algebra but is not going on to college.

A slide rule course was taught by the students this year. Activities of the math classes included a student demonstration of the flexigon, a moveable, three dimensional object, a trip to the IBM Computer Center, and contests, including one using the slide rule.

Senior Problems classes were visited and lectured by employment directors, marriage counselors, and social security administrators.

For the first time physiology was taught by a team consisting of Mr. Vernon Lowry, Mr. John McMillon and Mr. Dale Fredgren. This experimental system of team teaching is being tried all over the country.

This year's physics classes also received an added bonus in the form of having the opportunity to work with radiation measuring equipment, Geiger Mueller tubes and rate scalers, which were borrowed from the Atomic Energy Commission.

Field trips were also a highlight of this science year. Mr. Terry Boomer's earth science students went to San Francisco beach and investigated the geological features there. Also, chemistry students took their memorable trips to the Lawrence Radiation Laboratory and the Standard Oil Refinery.

Business Education at Alameda High School has been greatly implemented by the Vocational Education Act of 1963. Equipment and instructional materials have been provided under four separate projects since the inception of this Act.

The Office Practice laboratory has been completely equipped with electric typewriters and key-punch simulators.

A new Stenography laboratory has been completely equipped with thirty modern desks, swivel chairs, and a four-channel console system wired to thirty individual listening stations. As a result, the Dictation-Transcription class has been streamlined to a one-hour course.

Another project authorized under the VEA is a course called General Merchandising and is an instructional program which covers all activities and concepts concerned with bringing products and services from the producer to the consumer.

Even Charlie Brown needs encouragement in typing.

These stenographers brush up their skills by daily practice.

Languages-The Connecting Link

The Foreign Language Department accented the year by sponsoring field trips to contemporary plays, staging a Roman wedding festival, and writing poems in a foreign language.

French classes studied French culture and existentialism, while Latin classes studied Roman civilization and mythology. The advanced Spanish classes continued their studies of classical and modern authors.

Mrs. Lillian Dannenberg, department head, says, "Since the knowledge of languages is the link which connects us with the civilizations of the past, and is the medium by which we pass on our own accomplishments to the generations of the future, it is important that we study as many languages as possible to find out who we are, where we come from, and where we are going.

The contemporary scene takes on depth and meaning the more we know about other peoples and other cultures, for man is a continous stream of development, and to deny or to be unaware of the effort of others is to be condemned to repeat their mistakes."

Star and Key Tutors At Grammar Schools

A "B" scholastic average is the criteria for qualifying for the honor society, Star and Key. Headed this year by a new advisor, Mr. Dave Fairfield, the club has enjoyed a large membership and a successful year.

This year's members tutored students at Porter and Will C. Wood Schools one day each month. The club also had a book drive to fill a library that was built in honor of John McGinn, a Peace Corps volunteer.

Along with Mr. Fairfield the club's officers, Laurel Taylor, Mary Umland, Marilyn Ezzy, and Sue McKay, have been working on a system which would give certain privileges to those students on honor roll. For example, a student would be allowed to go into the library without a pass and, added Mr. Fairfield, "He won't have to be a club member."

Shown here are Mary Umland, vice-president; Marilyn Ezzy, recording secretary; Sue McKay, treasurer; Paul Schroeder and Roberta Greene, two active senior members.

Club President Laurel Taylor and Mr. Fairfield discuss the new Star and Key tutoring service.

Cecile Robinson, head of the tutoring service, confers with Mr. Brooks, faculty advisor.

CSF officers Sandy Schwartz, vice president, Linda Zucconi, president, and Dan Shea, secretary-treasurer.

CSF Observes Classes At UC For A Day

The California Scholarship Federation, CSF, is an academic honor society for students who earn a grade point average of 3.6 or above. This year's members had to comply with new membership rules because of the state revision of the CSF Constitution. One helpful change that was made allows a student who has taken a summer school course to use this grade for CSF.

This club also offers a service to students in the form of tutoring. Mr. John Brooks, faculty advisor, and Cecile Robinson, head of the tutoring service, set up a system which makes it easy for students who need help to get help. Included in the club's activities was a field trip to the University of California at Berkeley, where members observed classes for a day.

CSF tutors offer assistance to troubled students.

CSF members, Vickie Wake and Donna Paulsen, check the tutoring service box in the library.

MRS. COURTNEY SMITH

Alameda High School lost the services of one of its finest teachers this year when Mrs. Courtney Smith retired.

Mrs. Smith had taught in Alameda schools since 1929. She first came to Alameda High School in 1936. At that time she was a French teacher, and remained as such until 1949 when she transferred to the English Department.

The ACORN staff wishes her a pleasant retirement.

Four Years Of Change And Growth

Jim Hart blows his horn for Dean Johnson.

The graduating class of 1968 compiled many memories of the activities and accomplishments of our four years at Alameda High School. Among the highlights of our high school career was our freshman political convention, the Soph Hop, "Bewitched," the Junior Prom, "Wonderland by Night," and the Senior activities held this spring.

The years 1964 through 1968 not only represented growth for the seniors, but also a change on the national and international scene. As we entered our freshman year, the Beatles were the current rage. They, along with other personalities, launched the Hippie Movement, which flourished in our last years of high school. The predominate controversy of those years was the United States' involvement in the Vietnam War. This, in turn, created an awareness and concern on the part of our generation. The youth of our time demonstrated to the older generation that the teen-agers are ready and capable to enter and work towards a better, creative society.

Seniors Rally For Three-Night Play Success

This year for the first time in Alameda High School history, a Senior Play ran for three nights when the class of 1968 presented "Rally 'Round The Flag, Boys!" on November 3, 4, and 10 under the able direction of Mr. Lloyd Sisler.

Based on the book of the same name by Max Shulman, the play concerns the U.S. Army's decision to establish a missile base at Putnam's Landing, a quiet suburban town. Complications arise with Lieutenant Guido Di Maggio in the middle of the furor.

Assisting Mr. Sisler in the production were: Miss Edna Reichmuth, scenery; Mrs. Inez Whitton and Mrs. Betty Tillotson, costumes; Mr. Carlton Hanson, orchestra. The manager of "Rally 'Round The Flag, Boys!" was Jim Wigge, who was aided by Mary Jane Sandersere, co-manager. Jenny Sonido was the student director for the play.

Lieutenant Guido Di Maggio, played by Gary Dettmer, is caught mid-air making an entrance.

Determination marks the face of Craig Jessup as he and the British troops "advance" to the Battle of Putnam's Landing.

Student director Jenny Sonido instructs Dean Johnson and Mary Craddock on a scene.

Carmen Hall attempts to comfort Angela Galli on her marital difficulties.

Organizations

Noon-time Concerts Are Held

Alameda High's largest organization, Crescendo Club, held noon-time concerts during the latter part of the year and was able to hold meetings during long advisory when entertainment was provided by club members.

Helping to raise money for choral group outfits and Spring Concert records, a candy sale was held in September and the dance, "Through the Looking Glass," was held on April 26. The year was climaxed by a picnic in June.

The money raised by the candy sale and the dance helped to buy the material for the choral groups' outfits and help pay for the Spring Concert records.

Officers included Craig Jessup, president; Nancy Wagner, publicity manager; and Pam Cooke, financial secretary. Missing are Michele Miland, vice president; and Joyce Shepard, recording secretary.

"S" Stands for Service

All the responsibility falls on the shoulders of the President. Officers of "S" Club included Sophomore Director Kathy Crooker, Recording Secretary Denise Mauldin, Junior Director Nancy Cross, and President Sydney Kapchan. Missing are Vice President Cherie Essex, Corresponding Secretary Linda Pearse, Financial Secretary Jane Fields and Senior Director Sheryl Hiatt.

Painting curbs around the streets of Alameda was "S" Club's first fund-raising activity of the school year. In December they held a dance to raise money and collect toys for the Christmas party given for the special classes at Otis school.

"S" Club holds one social meeting and two regular meetings a month. Social meetings are held in a member's home and usually include a speaker. In March, members traveled to Asilomar for a weekend conference of all the "S" Clubs in Northern California. The purpose of the Conference was to exchange ideas on fund-raising and activities.

Before going to the Conference, "S" Club members held a song-writing contest. The best song written by a class was shared with all the girls at the Conference.

"S" Club is comprised of 30 girls from the Sophomore, Junior and Senior classes.

The Muscular Dystrophy Drive in early November of 1967 was a highlight of the Interact Club's activities this past year. Members of the club collected money door-to-door to help handicapped children throughout the United States.

In early January the Interact dance, "Interaction," was held. As a special added attraction John Nave put on a light show.

The Interact Club is sponsored by the Rotary Club of Alameda and advised by Mr. Ashley Jones. The club is open to boys of the 10th, 11th, and 12th grades.

Key Club Invites KYA

Our school joined the long list of others in the East Bay who have hosted the KYA Oneders this past year when the Alameda High Key Club sponsored the February 28th basketball game between our mighty men's faculty, led by Mr. Leland Stanford, and the disc jockeys from across the bay.

Another "first" instituted by the Key Club this year was the popcorn stand at the basketball games. They made the popcorn themselves and sold it for ten cents a bag to raise money this year. They also sold programs containing the names of the basketball players.

The Key Club is a service club which is sponsored by the Kiwanis Club, and is open to sophomores, junior, and senior boys. The club meets weekly in the band room with Mr. Stanford, faculty advisor.

Sue Marlowe and Nancy Feeny greet the new Freshmen at orientation.

Introducing freshmen to Alameda High School during Orientation was Courtesy Board's first official duty of the school year. Arranging and conducting tours of the school was done by fall members headed by President Nancy Feeny.

The first week of school, Courtesy Board members sold our traditional gold and white Alameda High School book covers. A profit of $112.00 was reported by Financial Secretary Sue Marlowe. Due to popular demand the book covers were put on sale for the first week of the second semester.

At Christmas, board members made Santa Clauses for the teachers' desks. The members became waitresses for the PTA meetings and the biannual sports banquets. The Courtesy Board's final duty of the school year was conducting a tour of the school for the eigth graders.

Ski Club Sponsors Five Trips

The Ski Club held five ski trips this year. The first trip in December took the members to Boreal Ridge. Snow was falling very heavily so skiing was somewhat hampered. Fortunately the other four trips enjoyed ideal weather. The second trip was held at Sugar Bowl during January. Two trips were held in February, one at Heavenly Valley and the second at Sugar Bowl. The last trip was an overnight at Heavenly Valley in March.

The club had two car washes, one in November, and one in February. A candy sale was held in December. Money from these fund raising activities helped pay for the cost of the ski trips.

Ski Club movies were shown twice a month for interested students in the Little Theatre.

French Club Travels To

This year's French Club sold the popular See's suckers to raise money for their field trip to San Francisco in February. They had a typical French dinner at Hotel des Alpes in North Beach before seeing the production of "Thieves' Carnival" at the Geary Theatre. The play was performed by the American Conservatory Theatre, one of the outstanding thespian groups on the West Coast.

The Spanish Club had a Pinata Party during the noon hour right before Christmas vacation. Various members of the club provided entertainment which included piano playing, accompanied by bongo drums and a flamenco dance by Carmen Hall.

After the Christmas party they held various meetings during the noon hour when the members ate their lunches and conversed in Spanish. One meeting consisted of slides and a lecture about Spain while another meeting was devoted to a talent show by the members.

Math Club and 3R's Club organized many projects this year.

An excursion to the San Francisco Planetarium, a visit to the Cal-State Computer Lab, and a trip to the Redwood Math Conference were some of this year's activities for the Math Club under the direction of Mrs. Eleanor Mueller. The club also sponsored a weekly tutoring program.

Mr. Earl Nethercutt's 3R's Club attended the Alameda County Future Teachers Conference at Mills College in the middle of March. Their monthly meetings featured guest speakers, usually student teachers. A field day in San Francisco featuring a bay cruise and dinner was the club's social event of the year.

Forum Starts Writing Workshop

Students listen entently to Gail Samotha's peom.

The Humanities Forum developed a special Creative Writing Workshop this year which opened up an opportunity for students to get together to criticize and discuss each other's literary works. Miss Madge Holland and Miss Mary Frances Claggett were the faculty advisors. The workshop met every Thursday throughout the year.

The main activity for the Forum was the sponsoring and publishing of the School's literary magazine, Lyceum. All students throughout the school are encouraged to submit short stories, poems, art work, etc. This gives the students a chance to perfect their writing skill as well as support the school and the Humanities Forum.

They also continued the successful noon poetry readings. All students are urged to attend and listen to amateur poets read their poems. New this year were several Novice Poetry Readings. This gave students who had never read before the chance to read their poems.

For the second year the Spring Poetry Festival was held in the cafeteria. Several poets from Pegasus, a branch of the San Francisco State Poetry Center, came to hear the poets from the school.

A Roman Wedding Is Held

Latin Club officers included Regan Murphy, Claudette Heinshon, and Jody Poor.

Latin Club's first activity of the school year was a picnic honoring Birgir Mortensen. Their October meeting was the initiation of the officers. Everyone who attended the meeting was given a Pandora's box which contained something terrible that represented a myth. If the picnickers could tell about the myth, they didn't have to go under the traditional Yoth. One box contained a special prize: Hope.

In November, the club held a Roman Wedding. The script, written by Eric Weir and Bob Shaw, featured narration satirizing television coverage of a wedding of national importance. Saturnalia was held in December. This festival in honor of Saturn combined ideas and traditions of Christmas and Thanksgiving. February brought the Culture Bowl between Alameda and Encinal High Schools. In March the club had a combined meeting with the other Alameda High School language clubs. The Spring Banquet, a Zodiac Party, was held in April. People were seated according to their Zodiac signs.

Pep Club Has Spirit!

Pep Club has spirit! Leading the spirited group this year were Chris Damele, president; Nancy Witter, vice-president; Carol Roberts, recording secretary; Debbie Harmola, financial secretary; Eileen Anderson, sergeant at arms; Kathy Giomi, song leader; Julie Evatt and Marilyn Reynolds, publicity.

The first fund-raising event of the school year was a chocolate bar sale. A sucker sale was held in the first week of April. The last fund-raising event of the year was a snow cone sale June 6. The money raised paid for the pom-pon and yell leaders' outfits.

Clinics and meetings are held bi-monthly in the gym. Yell leaders and pom-pon girls teach their yells to interested members.

Points were given for participation in fund-raising events, attendance at games and meetings. A total of 80 points is needed by each girl to try out for yell leader or pom-pon girl.

Fall Model U.N. Represented Barbados

The Model United Nations, led by Mr. Grant Robinson, represented Barbados in the Annual Bay Area Model U.N. Conference at the University of California in the spring. Their main objective was to study the political as well as cultural views of the country.

Some of their activities during the year included a balloon sale, a car wash, and a candy sale in the spring. The culmination of these activities was a "Fondue Party."

Block "A" Game A Success

The highlights of the spring term are always sure to include the Block "A"-Faculty basketball game. This year's game was organized by Mr. John McMillon and it fulfilled the sellout crowd's expectations of being an exciting game.

The score at half-time saw the Block "A" boys ahead, but the Faculty won in the end, 29 to 19. Half-time entertainment was a little different this year. The women's faculty organized a pom-pon line featuring Miss Arlene Hoshi as head cheerleader. Her assistants included Mrs. Ann Weldon, Miss Clare Carlson, Mrs. Maude Carter, Mrs. Judith Thompson, Mrs. Lillian Dannenberg, Mrs. Cheryl Tocchini, and Miss Madge Holland. They delighted the audience with their pom-pon routine to "Never on Sunday."

Block "A" Has Canned Food Drive

Women's Block "A" members had a busy year with activities that included a "Hornet" decal sale, a Thanksgiving Day basket collection, a gold and white pom-pon sale and a Father-Daughter Fun Night honoring the girls and their fathers.

The Thanksgiving Day basket was one of the new services rendered this year by the Block "A." In cooperation with the Men's Block "A," the girls collected monetary donations along with canned foods during the weeks before Thanksgiving to help needy families in Alameda have a more enjoyable Thanksgiving meal.

Because of the success of the Father-Daughter Fun Night last year, it was held again this year in December. Activities included relays, games and contests that found the girls pitted against their fathers.

The Women's Block "A" is the honor society of the G.A.A. and it is open only to those girls that have acquired 1200 points throughout their years in high school. The difficulty of acquiring these points accounts for the low number of members.

ROTC Visits Camp Parks

On February 2nd, 62 Alameda ROTC Cadets traveled to Camp Parks for a weekend of maneuvers. The Cadets ran tactical problems using M1 rifles and blank ammunition. The purpose of these exercises were to give the Cadet officers and noncommissioned officers a chance to apply the principles of leadership and tactics taught in the classroom. The M1 rifle firing was to familiarize the Cadets with live firing of the rifle and give them the opportunity to earn marksmanship awards. The Cadet Corps Commander was Cadet Major Robert Reynolds and the Senior Instructor was SFC. Gene Council.

The Encinal High School Cadet Corps were the enemy troops for the Alameda Cadet Corps.

The Color Guard hoisted the flag daily.

New Platoon

The aim of the Junior ROTC program in the high school is to provide instruction, experience, and stimulus to each student so that he will have a greater appreciation and understanding of his responsibilities to his country, and accordingly enable him to achieve better leadership and citizenship and to adapt himself more readily to a period of military service when he is called.

The ROTC student learns basic military procedures during the first year of study, then takes the responsibility of leadership and teaches the procedures during succeeding years. With the minimum of supervision he plans and directs unit training, makes decisions on matters relating to personnel and discipline, and assumes command responsibilities.

The Military Staff included: Sergeant 1st Class Virgel Council, Lt. Col, Edwin Harrison, Staff Sergeant William Bolt.

Eight Girls Win Block A In GAA

Girls' Athletic Association meets during 7th period physical education. The girls are given their choice of participating in many activities. These include bowling, volleyball, junior and senior lifesaving, synchronized swimming, softball, basketball, archery, tennis, golf, riflery, folk and modern dance, soccer, badminton, and tumbling.

The activities are offered in periods. The first period is nine weeks of a chosen sport. The second period is nine weeks, the third is five weeks, and the fourth is the last six weeks of school. Between the third and fourth periods are six weeks of physical fitness and health. The girls earn points by participating in the different sports, sales, and activities. The points are used towards earning the Circled "A", the Winged "A", and the Block "A".

akes ACAL Title

For the third time in seven years the Alameda Hornets won the ACAL championship title. Edging the San Leandro Pirates 25-20, the team achieved a perfect record of 8 wins and 0 losses. Crowds of AHS students filled the stands to watch the Hornets play the following games:

Alameda 27	(practice)..... St. Francis	6
Alameda 35	..... Richmond	0
Alameda 42	..... Berkeley	20
Alameda 26	..... Encinal	7
Alameda 47	..... De Anza	14
Alameda 60	..... El Cerrito	0
Alameda 27	..... Kennedy	0
Alameda 34	..... Pacific	7
Alameda 25	..... San Leandro	20

The three most critical games were those fought against Richmond, San Leandro, and Encinal. These teams placed second, third and fourth (respectively) in the final ACAL standings. In each, our team was outstanding both defensively and offensively, chalking up a record of 358 average yards gained as opposed to 152 average yards, rushing and passing, gained by all other teams played. Outstanding players on the team were Paul McBride, best passer since 1956, completed 55 per cent of his passes and accounting for 10 TD's; Barry Murphy, best junior linebacker, led the team in tackles; Frank George, a hard running fullback, made 366 yards and four TD's; Rich Baker, a very consistent end, completed 16 passes for a total of 445 yards and five TD's; Mike Amos completed 34 out of 46 PAT's through the season; Eric Cross carried the ball 121 times for 141 yards and 16 TD's; Steve Hammitt, a fine offensive tackler and blocker; and Leonard Lindsay, most consistent lineman this year.

Undoubtedly the most exciting and decisive game this year was won against the San Leandro Pirates. Although the Hornets expected an easier victory, the Pirates, unusually hard tackling and charging, kept the Hornets from making more than two touchdowns by the end of the fourth quarter with a TD, setting the score at 25-20. For the rest of the fourth quarter, San Leandro retained virtual possession of the ball. 4:41 remained on the clock while the Pirates had 81 yards to go. Four minutes later they were within 19 yards of the goal and pushing hard, gaining yardage. With 35 seconds remaining, Eric Cross leaped up catching a pass intended for a Pirates' receiver in the end zone, and ran 45 yards to secure the victory. Paul McBride, using a quarterback sneak, ate up the remaining seconds, winning the 1967 ACAL title for Alameda.

Gary Fascilla puts up stiff blocking for a Yellowjackets receiver near the end zone. The pass was incomplete.

Ben Garfinkle, tail back, breaks away from a Pinole lineman to gain yardage. In background, Walt Brophy, guard, brings down a potential tackler.

Junior Varsity Ha

The Alameda Junior Varsity lost its opener to Richmond, but came back to tie Pacific and beat all other teams by a strong margin. Led by quarterback Mark Hansen, tail end Ron Coffman, and tight end Dennis Peterson, the team scored 284 points over its opponents' 122. The games played were:

Alameda	7	Richmond	20
Alameda	41	De Anza	0
Alameda	46	El Cerrito	0
Alameda	52	Encinal	25
Alameda	32	San Leandro	20
Alameda	20	Pacific	20
Alameda	27	Berkeley	6
Alameda	39	Pinole	13
Alameda	27	Kennedy	18

Although the team needs to work on its defense, it is an explosive offensive team. Coach Dennis Hennessee is "looking forward to a good season next year."

The Soph-Frosh team had a successful season as far as improvement of the players was concerned, despite its record of one win and eight losses. The team came close to beating San Leandro, who made a record of seven wins and two losses, but a last-minute touchdown upset the score. Says Coach Bill Thompson, "this year will start paying off next year when these boys, as JV's, will win a lot of games."

Coaches Mike McGovern, Tony Piazza, and Bill Thompson give serious appraisal to the Soph-Frosh team at the Pacific game . . . Who knows what evil lurks in the hearts of coaches?

11 Players Named to ACAL Teams

This year saw 11 varsity football players named to the first and second strings of the All-ACAL teams. The team's record of nine wins and no losses placed them sixth in Northern California. In addition, Coach Forrest Klein (lower right) was bestowed with the honor of co-coaching the North-South Shrine game, the highest honor a California high school coach can receive. The game, to be played in Memorial Coliseum in Los Angeles, pits the finest prep players from Northern California against those from Southern California.

Named to the All-ACAL first string team from Alameda were Richard Baker, offensive and defensive end; Eric Cross, offensive halfback; Gary Fascilla, defensive halfback; Steve Hammitt, offensive tackle; Paul McBride, offensive quarterback; Barry Murphy, defensive linebacker; and Leonard Lindsay, defensive guard. Named to the second string were Kirby Eaton, defensive guard; Frank George, offensive fullback; Leonard Lindsay, offensive center; Paul Hahn, offensive tackle; and Mike Amos, offensive end. Those named to the All East Bay Offense were Richard Baker, Paul McBride, and Leonard Lindsay.

Sliding across the turf, Alameda's Bill Yarborough brings down Encinal's Forrest Haymon on their 40-yard line.

October 6 was warm and clear as the Hornets marched onto the field to battle Encinal's Jets. Encinal planned to contain speedy Eric Cross, keeping him on the inside while rushing Quarterback Paul McBride in an effort to upset his passing. But our exceptionally strong defense held them while Fullback Frank George led the offense in pushing back their line. It was assumed that the Hornets would be ahead of their opponents by the end of the first half, but by failing to capitalize on the Jets' mistakes, they trailed 7-6 at half time. Coming back in the second half, the Hornets ended the game with a final score of 26-7. By winning this city championship, the Hornets established as early as October that it had one of the best teams in recent history.

Principal Donald Bell proudly displays the trophy that he has waited 11 years to win.

In the opening moments of the game, Alameda's Gary Fascilla (22) tackles Haymon on an end run.

Soph-Frosh Cross Country Won ACAL

The 1967 Cross Country Team, headed by Coach Leland Stanford, had a very good season. The Soph-Frosh team won the ACAL title with Mike Wallace, Joe DeSimone, Lester Mina, Tom Weir, and Brad Caulkins giving outstanding performances. Next year is expected to be another great year considering the winning Soph-Frosh will help compose the Varsity and Junior Varsity teams.

The team practiced in Joaquin Miller Park in the Oakland hills during seventh period and after school; individual team members averaged 50 miles a week.

Rey Sedillo, Best Jr., "puts out" as he finishes in the ACAL meet.

The yearly awards presented by Coach Stanford were as follows:

Girls' Swim Teams Remain Undefeated

During the past two years, the Girls' Varsity and Junior Varsity teams remained undefeated, compiling a 20-0 record. Both teams competed against the best teams from the East Bay, Peninsula, Marin County and Walnut Creek areas, beating them all. During the two years of the team's existence, five swimmers have qualified for four All-American times:

Event	Time	Swimmers
200 yd. medley relay	2:09.4	Klinkenburg, Giomi, Willett, Wallace
400 yd. freestyle relay	4:10.0	Paden, Giomi, Willett, Wallace
50 yd. freestyle	27.3	Carol Willett
50 yd. freestyle	26.2	Jan Paden

With the use of the new diving pool at the Alameda Swim Center and the increasing number of girls that turn out, Coach Fairfield "looks forward to many more successful years."

Varsity Basketball Tallies A Strong Season

The Alameda Hornet Varsity Basketball team finished a promising year on a slightly sour note as they were edged out of the Alameda County Athletic League playoffs by Berkeley, Richmond, De Anza, and Pacific.

Led by Mel Arnerich and Chris Speier, both of whom were chosen to the All-ACAL team, the varsity turned in their best performance in ten years with a 17-10 record. Arnerich accumulated 420 points to take top honors in the league. Speier's 220 points, his rebounding and fine playmaking ability also kept the Gold and White in contention.

Great efforts were also turned in by Paul Idle, Bob Bernal, Bob Rulofson, and Steve Hammitt, all of whom gave Coach Pearson justification for calling the team, "The best I've ever had."

All-ABA center and rising superstar in the making, Dan Issel shows that he is a scoring threat.

Establishes System

This year's Junior Varsity Basketball team had a good season, compiling fifteen wins and seven losses. Curt Jones, Dennis Peterson, and John Pearson were outstanding on defense. High scorers this year were Mike McKee, Dennis Peterson, and Eric Cross. Using their experience gained this year, the team expects to have a fine 1968-1969 varsity season.

A new system was implemented this past year by dividing the Soph-Frosh team into two segments, the Frosh, and the Soph. This system is used to give more boys a chance to play. On the sophomore team, Dane Nelson was high scorer with eighty-three points, and the outstanding player was Sherrill Conner. The team's record was two wins and thirteen losses. Many of the team's members will be promoted to either the J.V. or Varsity teams next year.

'Explosive' Frosh Team Finishes 6-9

Closing the season with six wins and nine losses, the Frosh team placed fifth of eight schools in the West Berkeley Christmas Tournament. They scored 133 points to their opponents 139.

Willie Thomas was voted to the top 10 players at this tournament, scoring 41 points, placing him second highest scorer. The team as a whole put out a great effort, being greatly improved by the end of the year. Coach Lee Stanford summarized the season:

"The Freshman team is by far the most outstanding Frosh team I have had the pleasure of coaching; team spirit, desire, determination, and ability which this team maintained surely will make them an outstanding Senior team in 1970-71."

Boys' Swim Team Was Out To Win

This year's Boys' Swim team trained and competed with one specific goal, the North Coast Championship in May. The team has held this title for two years and hoped to keep it. Winner of the ACAL title for the past five seasons, the team also expected to retain this league position. The results of these and all other meets will be published in the supplement.

The team was paced this year by seniors Larry Lozensky, Gary Gamble and John Benedick; juniors Maltbie Napoleon and Tony Mazzi; and sophomore Mickey Caldwell. Roger Rodd also gave great help in diving.

Coach Ashley Jones looked at this season as "one of the most challenging" since he began as coach of the team twelve seasons ago. This was his last and proved to be one of his best.

In lanes four and five, Larry Lozensky and Jim Hart start a 200-yard freestyle race against Berkeley. Larry, who won this race, received an honorable mention to the All-American Swim Team last year.

Maltbie Napoleon, top butterfly swimmer in Northern California, far outdistances his opponent.

At Acorn deadline time, the 1968 Varsity Baseball team started the season off with two wins and one loss. Captain Gary Fascilla pitched the winning games, one against San Lorenzo 3-1, and the other against McClymonds 5-2.

Coach Leroy Bernadou said about the team, "We have a strong defense, good hitting, and this year's team is the fastest overall team in a long time."

Returning lettermen are Chris Speier, Mel Arnerich, Paul Hoopaugh, and Gary Fascilla. Moving up from last year's Junior Varsity team are: catchers, Barry Murphy and Fred Stone; shortstops, Ron Coffman and Bill Yarbrough; pitching, Mark Hansen and Rick Brummett; and outfield, Ray Pagano.

The 1968 Junior Varsity Baseball team was a young but well-rounded team. The team was made up mainly of sophomores, with many juniors playing varsity. On the mound pitching were Charlie Patterson, Bruce Bergstrom and Jerry Carr. Ron Costello, catcher, and Mike Reynolds, right field, were both doing fine jobs. This year's all around hitter was Dave Greer. The team's record was two wins and one loss; at deadline they had scored 33 runs to their opponents' 13, while shutting out two teams.

Coach Dennis Hennesee commented, "The team could go a long way, because they have good hitting, a solid outfield, and a lot of ability."

Jim Parodi, in the high jump pit, clears 5'4" to place third in the Berkeley meet.

Trackmen Break Several Records

When the Acorn deadline arrived, Alameda's track team was in the middle of its season.

Up to that time the team, which had more sophomores on its varsity than any other class, showed great promise for the future. If the team's younger members continue to improve at their present rate, AHS may have a championship team within a few years.

Two mile runner Tom Weir, who broke the "B" Team record with a 10:01.5, finishes 25 yards ahead of the second place runner in the San Leandro meet.

Junior Officers Plan Year's Activities

This year the Junior Class showed its originality by starting a series of Wednesday volleyball contests between the junior advisories.

The Junior Prom, "In the Still of the Night," was presented on February 16. Over 300 people were in attendance as Tori Nahnsen was crowned queen.

The juniors held a car wash which made $200.00 for the class and winning the poster contest during Homecoming gave them an additional $5.00.

Eric Cross was chosen "prep of the week" while Deborah Best, Larry Archibald, Linda Reitmier, and Carolyn Corn proved to be outstanding students scholastically.

Sophomores Elect Hard-Working Officers

Sophomores kept busy this year earning money for their class. Football program sales in November, a noon cupcake sale in February and the class victory in the Homecoming "Wishing Well" Contest earned a total of $121.67. The Soph Hop, which added $218.05 to the treasury, was named "Kahuna."

Other fund-raising events included selling advance sale tickets for the All-School play and a May car wash.

Frosh Officers Face New Responsibility

The class of 1971 benefited from a new Orientation Program last fall, through which they attended classes three days the week before school started.

It was a money-making year for the ambitious Frosh. The class started its activities selling programs for a fall football game. $10.00 was presented to them for winning first prize in the PTA Membership Contest. The Frosh had a good turnout for the January Cupcake Sale and their February "Sock Hop" noon dance.

Who Are We?

Man is a most strange entity, who, in order to be what he is,
needs first to find out what he is;
needs, whether he will or no,
to ask himself
what are the things around him and what, there in the midst of them, is he.

—Jose Ortega y Gassett—

we'll be in some of the same classes, and that will change. Love ya,
Natalie

Clark,
I'm glad you're in one of my classes and I hope we get another one together next year. Have a nice summer.
Mr Lee

Clark,
I'm glad I got to know you this year. Hope you don't get Gamboa next year. Good luck in your Senior year

Our star projectionist + a real wit. Good luck as a ruling senior. — If you don't take 3 years of Spanish I guess you can't get Gamboa, so you have the right idea —
Dennis

Clarke,
I'm glad I got in your Spanish class and got to know you. You are a real nice guy and I hope I see ya this summer.

Well, how do you feel after completing English 4 year of Mrs. Anderson's instruction? I won't be seeing you next year so best of luck in the "mighty seniors" and in the years to come. Cathy S.

Clark,
Uncle Carl's class has been a blast. Hope you have a good summer.
See you later
Jan Blevins

-Clarke-
thanks a lot for those answers in phys. sure did help.
ha! ha!
-Gary-

Clark,
Well I sure did have fun playing "Crazy 8's" in advisory for the past few days that we had left of school. Maybe we can do it again in Summer school.

Lots of Luck next year.
